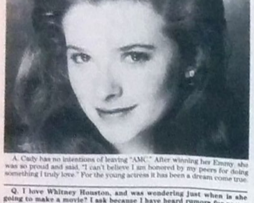
Entertainment Extra by Evelyn

Q. Is it true that Timothy Busfield of "thirtysomething" is not returning to the show this fall? Helen F.

A. Timothy will return this fall as Elliot Weston. However, MGM-UA, the producers of the show, had filed a law suit against the actor for breach of his five-year contract — this was Busfield's fourth year. The actor wanted a raise in pay, or he threatened to boycott the show. However, differences have been resolved and all is well.

Q. I love Cady McClain, who portrays Dixie on "All My Children." Since she just won an Emmy, I was wondering if she will be looking to further her career, and possibly leave the show? Rick G.



A. Cady has no intentions of leaving "AMC." After winning her Emmy, she was so proud and said, "I can't believe I am honored by my peers for doing something I truly love." For the young actress it has been a dream come true.

Q. I love Whitney Houston, and was wondering just when is she going to make a movie? I ask because I have heard rumors for years, but have seen no results. Harry D.

A. It is true that Whitney over the years has turned down many offers to do a feature film. However, I am happy to report that now comes word that Ms. Houston will be starring in "Disappearing Acts" for Tri-Star films. "Disappearing Acts" is a Pocket Books novel about the love between a singer and a construction worker. No date yet on production and subsequent release. This space will keep you updated.

Q. Is it true that Victoria Principal is thinking about a return to the series, "Dallas?" Kay S.

A. Not that Victoria isn't flattered that many of her fans would like her to return, but the actress is now very big news and has many other commitments. Recently, Principal signed a deal with Hearst Entertainment for her own ABC TV series and a more active role in producing movies.

Q. My uncle said John Ritter's father was a cowboy star. Is he right? Alan S.

A. He is. Tex (real name Woodward Maurice Ritter) made films from the '30s to the '60s. He recorded the soundtrack song for the film, "High Noon." Before becoming an entertainer, he majored in political science in college, and then went on to study law.

Q. When can we expect "Batman II" to hit the screen? Art E.

A. Not for a while. A draft of the sequel wasn't received with high enthusiasm, so it is being reworked. Actor Michael Keaton probably won't look at the first script until sometime in early 1991.

Q. I've been curious about Tatum O'Neal's career. Did she give it up when she married John McEnroe? Also, how does she get along with Farrah Fawcett, and how many kids does Ryan O'Neal (Tatum's father) have altogether? Thanks for your information. Patti N.

A. Tatum is returning to films this year after, as she said, "going on a holiday" from movie work back in 1984, so she could do two things: catch up on her life and raise a family. She and McEnroe now have two sons, Kevin, 4 and Sean, 2½. Tatum and her brother Griffin are the children of Ryan's first wife, actress Joanna Moore. Ryan has a son, Patrick Ryan, by his second wife, Leigh Taylor Young. He and Farrah Fawcett also have a son. So far as anyone can tell, Tatum and Fawcett are quite close.

Tatum's new picture is "Little Noises" costarring Crispin Glover who played Michael J. Fox's father in the "Back to the Future" films.

Q. Was Nora Dunn fired from "Saturday Night Live" because she refused to share the show with Andrew Dice Clay, and what about the musician on Arsenio Hall's show who also refused to work the night he was on? What happened to her? Ted D.

A. According to NBC sources, the decision not to call Nora back for the 1990-91 season had been made before Clay was booked. Her boycott of Clay had nothing to do with her being let out of "SNL."

Starr Parodi, Arsenio's keyboardist, also stayed off the night Clay was on. However, Arsenio went out of his way twice to show he supported her right to take this stand. He posed for photographers with his arm around her that same night, and the next evening, he made some very gracious remarks about her on camera.

Q. Please settle this once and for all. A friend whose father comes from Yugoslavia said that he knew Madonna's father in the old country. Is Madonna of Yugoslavian or Italian descent? Susan H.

A. Italian.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Out-of-town guests may be delayed. Some experience friction with in-laws. Keep the lid on your temper. Nighttime hours are best for domestic interests. Curb being extravagant. A schedule change comes up with travel plans. Start your trip earlier or later than planned.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Strain could exist with a close tie about a shopping or financial matter. Seek a compromise. You tend to spend more time than anticipated when socializing this week. Don't be in such a rush that you become accident prone. New starts are favored, but try not to come on too strongly.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Changes in entertainment plans may mean you have more time by yourself. Escapist tendencies are strong now. Try to use leisure time constructively. Tension could arise between a family member and a friend. Socializing is best after dark. Curb credit card use.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Unexpected changes are likely in your career. Regroup, then make a new start. Tact is needed with higher-ups, but do exercise your initiative. Travelers may meet with extra expenditures. Watch health regimen when dining in unfamiliar locales. Check fees for hidden costs before agreeing to services.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You may have a devil-may-care attitude toward expenditures now. Watch impulsive decisions. With due forethought, however, financial moves are favored. Don't let loose your ire if someone keeps you waiting now. This person may have a legitimate excuse. Try not to overwhelm a romantic tie.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) One interruption too many and you could fly off the handle. You'll get some of the things you planned to do done this week, but not everything. Be patient. A change in pleasure plans is no excuse to go overboard in spending. You won't have the patience for a business meeting now.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Minor inconveniences seem to arise now to dim the outcome of pleasurable pursuits. Some find children a bit trying. Romance is a bit problematic. Don't even try to convert someone who is on a totally different wavelength. There seem to be some loose ends at home now.

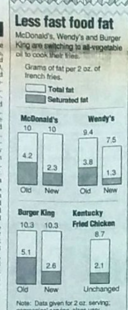
SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Financial dealings with others could have a deceptive note. Getting your ideas across now isn't totally successful. Some people just aren't listening. You could search every store in town and still not find exactly what you're looking for. Accent candor with close ties.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Halfhearted efforts won't succeed now. Either work or play, but don't dillydally your time away. Don't let the same old thing get your goat again. Just because others aren't straightforward doesn't mean you need to spend the rest of your week trying to figure out where they're coming from.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Nobody is perfect, as you know. Try to make allowances for others' shortcomings. Socializing brings a business tip, but it could be more fruitful. Not everything you hear now will be the truth. You'll spend some time on business matters now, but don't expect much from those who talk a big game.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You'll drive yourself crazy if you expect everyone to live up to your standards. Others are all too human now. Be wary in financial dealings. A partner is your best financial adviser now, yet you two are not at your best in relating to one another.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It may be hard to get going now and it my also be difficult to read others at present. Business matters are best left alone for now. Romantic trends are iffy. Don't be impressionable. Those with good intentions may not live up to them when it comes to doing some extra work now.



Coupon Corner

Dear C.R. in Huntington Mills, Pa. You wrote and asked for the toll-free number for Alpo. Their number is 1-800-289-2576. You also said you would like to thank Procter and Gamble for the way they handle their refunds and products. I think that's very commendable. You can write to them at the address listed on their packages, or call their toll-free numbers.

For Procter and Gamble paper products, the number is 1-800-543-0480. For P&G foods, 1-800-543-7276; P&G promotions, 1-800-543-7310; P&G softeners, 1-800-543-1745; detergents, 1-800-543-0485; P&G beauty and toiletries, 1-800-543-7270.

I really don't have much in the way of toll-free numbers for "free stuff." Here are the three I have:

PASTA ACCENTS FREE FRESH AND EASY RECIPES, 1-800-767-4466.

DOLE FREE RECIPES, 1-800-232-8888.

CUTTING YOUR HOME HEATING FUEL BILLS BOOKLET, 1-800-441-2555.

If you have any specific questions or comments on couponing or refunding, you can send them to Rose Lynn, P.O. Box 252, Nedrow, N.Y. 13120.

Here are this week's offers:

DEAR DIANE

by Diane Van Arsdale

DEAR DIANE

I'm a woman in my late 20s, and just recently met a man whom I truly enjoy being with. We haven't been dating very long, but the time we do spend together is very special. I can't seem to be able to spend enough time with him, and I know that will push him away if it's too much, too soon. I've discussed with him that I hope in time our relationship can become something more serious. He told me he enjoys being with me very much, and hopes something good comes of it, but on the other hand, he will continue to see other women. I know I haven't the right to ask him not to, and I know I should also date other men too. It's just I really don't want to date anyone else now; I don't feel right being with one man one night and another man another night. It's very hard for me to accept that the man I really like is out with another woman. How can I deal with this situation without being too pushy and turning him away?

OLD-FASHIONED

DEAR OLD-FASHIONED:

I can understand your feelings, but you have only two choices here. Either you can accept what's going on, and date other men as well, or you can stop seeing this man if the situation is totally unacceptable to you. I believe you should opt for the first choice. Believe me, once you stop focusing your attention on just one person, you'll be able to get a broader perspective and accept the situation. You'll also be giving him more of a challenge which seems to be something men enjoy. After all, why should he go out of his way for you if he knows he's got you in his back pocket? However, if you're off doing your own thing, he's going to have to make an effort to capture your attention if he truly cares about you.

DEAR DEX

by Dexter Dyer

DEAR DEX:

My wife and I have been married for five years, and we have a four-year-old child. When we were first married, everything was fine. We had a great sex life, but as soon as the child was born, the sex stopped. I've tried to be patient with her, but there's a limit. She works, comes home, picks out her clothes for the following day, and goes to bed. She always says she's too tired. Mind you, I work also. I clean the house, cook dinner, do laundry, and take care of our child. I can't understand how she's still tired. Recently, we were on vacation, and during the day we kept very busy, and most of the evening, but when it was time for romance, again she was tired. The worst part of it all was I asked her what's the matter. She said she's just not in the mood, and of course tired, but by all means, she told me, I can go out and find someone for the evening to have sex with, and she'd see me in the morning! I was very hurt. Last week, I tried a romantic evening alone with her, and our son stayed at his grandma's for the evening. We had a candlelight dinner, and I bought her a beautiful diamond necklace. She gave in to me later, but in the midst of everything, she told me to hurry up and finish! I lost it right then and there for any romance toward her. I just can't take anymore, and yet she doesn't want a divorce. What is going on here, and what can I do about it?

FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED:

Your wife seems to have some deep-rooted hangups about sex. These have to be addressed, or your marriage will definitely fall apart. I strongly suggest marriage counseling. You've done just about everything else I would have suggested short of counseling, so go for it. Even if she refuses, you should go alone. Since she doesn't want a divorce, though, I think she'll go when she realizes just how serious the situation is. Good luck, and let me know what happens.

Soap Updates by Seli Groves

ALL MY CHILDREN: Jeremy and David argued about Ceara. Travis told Erica he's Molly's father and asked her permission to have Bianca tested as a possible bone marrow donor. Tad and Joey became protective of their respective ex spouses. Palmer believed Daisy returned to see him, not to attend Myra's surprise party as she claimed. Opal was impressed with Daisy's exotic tales of life in Europe. Uli told Palmer he wants to marry Opal. Adam gave Natalie an engagement ring and an apparently apathetic Trevor toasted the couple. Wait To See: Dixie learns how tenacious Billy Clyde can be.

ANOTHER WORLD: Jake lured Paulina to her room to try to install a bugging device on her phone. Vicky was upset to see Jamie and Marley growing closer, and decided to learn more by impersonating Marley. Evan and Amanda made love in the boardroom. Olivia wouldn't tell Amanda what Sam was planning. Ken felt guilty about deceiving Rachel. After warning Lucas not to risk his life going after the cartel, Felicia flew to Africa to visit Mitch. As Rachel welcomed Paulina into the family, Jake got proof of her collusion with Ken. Wait To See: Tangled stories ensnare some unsuspecting people.

AS THE WORLD TURNS: Tom admitted hearing the tape helped him understand Margo's motives. Colin phoned Shannon to say Deming's death was an accident and he really loved Lily. Lisa learned Duncan's on Lilith's trail. Shannon recalled Lilith trying to kill her. Holden overheard Lily say she still loved him, but would try to forget him. Margo told Barbara she's pregnant. Linc told Lily Jenny may be his child. On board the ship, Jason and Iva dropped their pretense of being playboy and heiress. Lyla learned of Bob's affair with Susan. Wait To See: Blake learns how dangerous Tonio can be, and Frank has more bombshells to drop.

BOLD & THE BEAUTIFUL: Eric and Brooke decided to live together if Stephanie refused to give him a divorce. Ridge gave Brooke a string of pearls Caroline wanted her to have. Storm was upset to see Ridge with Brooke and told him off. Later, Storm told Brooke she'd been deceived by Ridge, that he never loved her. Macy told Thorne she kept her mother's identity secret for fear of losing him. Thorne kissed her passionately. Wait To See: Stephanie is sure she has Eric on the defensive.

DALLAS: On hiatus

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Jennifer saved Jack from falling and read him Kayla's letter urging people to believe he's changed. Roman rescued Sarah from the burning house. She was rushed to the hospital with serious injuries and smoke inhalation. Roman later arrested Chad and Carrie when he found them trying to hide the drug paraphernalia. Jack was worried about Jennifer because the tape she gave him is phony. Kayla was shocked to find Shane involved with the oil people. Johnny and April grew closer. Maggie found out about Sarah's parents. Wait To See: Patch worries that Jack could make a fatal error.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: After Simone refused to tell Harrison she loved him, he decided to use Meg to fight for the child he doesn't really care for. Lucy tried to get evidence of Ned's wrongdoing to give to Amanda. Robert and Anna accidentally "decoded" the message from Faison's fax machine and learned Anna would die if she doesn't marry Faison. Dawn helped Decker remember Colissimo taunting him, and, later, Colissimo dead on the horse. Ned's affair with Wendy became national news. Frankie snuck into Clayton's office and found files on Bobbie's adoption of Lucas, and others, linking Rico to Clayton's baby selling ring. Wait To See: Anna decides to risk her life to find out who is pulling Faison's strings.

GENERATIONS: Kyle found no diamonds in the moose head. Pa suggested they'd been plowed under in the cornfield. He later reassured Mary by letting her find a diamond in the coffee can. Sam escaped from the chest. She and Adam returned to the warehouse to find the treasures were apparently back in their place in the gallery. She set off the alarm to alert Mr. Chu that the pieces were fakes, but he had her thrown out. Eric was found guilty. Learning that Chantal could influence his sentence, he planned to try to influence her as well. Wait To See: The tables appear to be turning on Reginald.

GUIDING LIGHT: Blake fainted when she learned of Philip's "death." Holly faced an angiogram to check for a tumor. A drunk Gary tried to attack Chelsea. Josh blasted Billy for mourning too much for Reva. Blake and Alan-Michael agreed to move into the mansion with Alex and Beth. Alex fumed when Roger claimed Philip's death was a hoax. Lisa felt Beth would be convicted of Neil's murder. A shocked Philip met India in Corsica. Wait To See: Josh is forced to make a sad decision.

KNOTS LANDING: On hiatus

LOVING: After questioning Norma again about Rick's murder Alex continued to try to find the shoe that fit the shoeprint. Louie got Kate an engagement ring. Dane, helping Alex, pretended to be drunk to get to Stevie's foot. Stacey found Norma passed out and called 911. Rio saw an immigration lawyer who told him a visa costs $500 — or he could marry a U.S. citizen. Rio refused to use Rocky in that way. Stevie and her henchmen kidnapped Ava. Wait To See: Curtis creates a risky situation.

ONE LIFE TO LIVE: Jake stopped the trial because of the threat to Megan and Sarah. Laura and Dan delivered a baby in a farmhouse together. Megan and Sarah were forced by their kidnappers to put on Amish clothing. Tina told Renee she'd slept with Johnny. Chuck told Max Asa pulled a fast one on Max's father years ago. Gabrielle read old, unopened letters from Max's mother that were to have been burned. Agent Alex Olanov was assigned to the Megan/Sarah kidnap case. Bo was shocked when Alex arrived at his house. Wait To See: Max faces some shocking facts about his past.

SANTA BARBARA: Thinking Quinn is Robert, Cruz said he knows he's "Deep Throat" and needed information on a company on his list. Flame tried to get the information from the real Robert — implying Kelly could be hurt if he didn't cooperate. Mason was upset that Julia was now working with the Blues (previously called the Greens) instead of with him. Without letting on that he planned to double-cross her, a desperate Lionel agreed to Gina's offer that they work together. Julia offered Dash her legal services to save the bird sanctuary. Wait To See: Cruz unwittingly risks Kelly's life.

YOUNG & THE RESTLESS: Esther and Brock urged Kay to fight for Rex unaware she'd already arranged with Nikki to meet with Leanna Love. Ashley was shocked to find John and Jill about to make love. David arranged to plant cocaine in Danny's dressing room. The police received an anonymous call from an "angry father" claiming Danny tried to sell cocaine to his son. Salena was incredulous, but Roy insisted on a search of Danny's dressing room. The cocaine was found in the toilet tank. Meanwhile, Chase insisted David can't be trusted and was upset that Cricket was softening her opinion. Wait To See: Danny's case becomes even tighter against him.
